

Complete Collective Worship & RE Special Offer Packs

All over the country RE and Collective Worship is taking place in Primary Schools weekly and often daily. At the same time teachers are trying to find ways to improve the quality and impact of their lessons and the assemblies that are required by law to have a 'broadly Christian focus'.

In recognition of this we have put together some special offer packs to enhance teaching in effective and often humorous and visually stimulating ways. These packs include our own fully scripted Bible-based assemblies along with DVDs, Videos, PowerPoints and PDFs from some of our extremely talented contributors and suppliers. All of these resources are based around Bible stories and satisfy the government's requirement.

Curious Cat – Cross Curricular Resources

Where do endangered animals live?

What do they look like, and what else lives in that environment?

The WayOut Bunch books feature 'Curious Cat' who takes the child on an adventure to various parts of the world to discover a different endangered animal within each book. An excellent KS1 resource for learning about animals and countries not usually covered. Animals include the Orang-utan, Giant Anteater, Kakapo and Long-eared Jerboa. Enchanting illustrations and fascinating facts help to raise awareness and establish knowledge of the country's geography, maps and flags. Uses include Year 1 cross-curriculum topic, guided reading and developing level 1 readers. Activity sheets have been created for each book covering numeracy, comprehension and other educational activities.

More information about the full range and view a PowerPoint Preview or sample activity sheets visit the Curious Cat Category on www.teachersdozen.co.uk.

NEW - Applecartlive's New School Shorts Storytelling Short Films for RE & Collective Worship

Everyone loves to hear a good story, but sometimes the story is only as good as the storyteller. Applecartlive are a charity specialising in professional storytelling, drama and music, they have just launched their first four short films for Primary Schools.

Children will become absorbed in these stories, told with enthusiasm, energy and humour. The storyteller's excitement is infectious, using everyday language and creative locations to keep the audience engaged in an unforgettable way.

These videos can also be used as part of assemblies from the a teacher's dozen Spring books (one from each Spring Book).

You can view part of each video by visiting the Applecartlive page at www.teachersdozen.co.uk.

Ten Out Of Ten

Teaching which is multi-sensory is always more effective than that which uses just one medium. In "Ten Out of Ten" the Ten Commandments are explored using scripts which can either be read or acted out, with or without puppets.

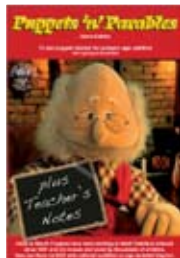

Produced by Hand to Mouth Puppets, the book also includes photocopiable worksheets which are ideal for small group work. There's also plenty of ideas for making puppets and puppet theatres.

Parables Winning Awards

Puppets 'n' Parables DVD and Teacher's Notes

There's no doubt that KS1 and KS2 children always have a close affinity with puppets and find stories explained through this medium easy to understand. In this case puppets are used to tell 10 Bible parables and then again to act out modern day examples of the parables. Some of the videos use animation to visualise the stories.

Awarded Best Christian Children/Youth Programme 2007

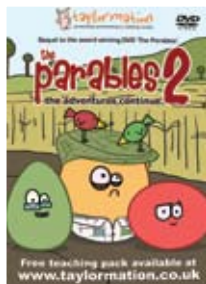

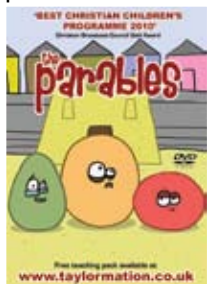

The 10 parables covered on this DVD are: Visitor at Midnight, House On The Rock, Rich Farmer, Amazing Pearl, Lost Sheep, Prodigal Son, Great Feast, Unforgiving Servant and Good Samaritan.

The Teacher's Notes download includes class questions, word banks, character pictures, Bible passages and prayers relating to each parable.
